

Cookie Policy

(Revised as of 8th September 2022)

Blockstein GmbH (“Marketstars”) respects the confidentiality of your data and strives to ensure the highest level of protection. Despite the measures we are taking to protect your information, any measures that we apply will not have any effect, if you neglect the reasonable actions that ensure the data security.

This Cookie Policy applies to the Marketstars website: <https://marketstars.io> (“Marketstars website”). It supplements Privacy Policy, which may be accessed here: Privacy Policy.

You do not have to accept all of the cookies used by Marketstars website. If you reject certain cookies, however, you may not be able to use some of the features of Marketstars website. Please note that by deleting or blocking cookies that are strictly necessary for the performance of website, it may not function correctly, and you may not be able to access certain areas of the Marketstars website.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are text files with small pieces of data — like a username and password — that are used to identify your device as you use a network. Specific cookies known as HTTP cookies are used to identify specific users and improve your web browsing experience.

Data stored in a cookie is created by the server upon your connection. This data is labelled with an ID unique to you and your device.

How does Marketstars use them?

Marketstars uses cookies and similar technologies to collect information about the use of our website and mobile applications in order to make them function effectively and also to improve our website visitors' experience when they browse our website and mobile applications user experience.

We use session cookies to make it easier for you to navigate our sites and our mobile applications. A session cookie expires when you close your browser or a mobile application on your device. A persistent cookie remains on your hard drive for an extended period of time and can be used when you return to our site to help identify you or allow you to log in, or on other third-party sites to communicate to you via online-marketing channels. If you reject cookies, you may still use our site or our mobile application, but your ability to use some areas of the site will be limited and you may need to re-enter your personal data when you register.

We use a third-party tracking service that uses cookies and similar technology to track non-personal or private information on users and mobile applications taken together (where applicable).

Marketstars website use the following types of cookies on our website:

1. Strictly necessary cookies

Some cookies we place on your browser ensure that the Marketstars website delivers you information and services securely and optimally.

2. Performance cookies

Marketstars use a number of tools that monitor visitor behaviour on our website to help us improve our information and services.

3. Advertising cookies

We sometimes use tracking pixels that set cookies to assist with delivering online advertising.

4. Third-party cookies

Some of our webpages use third-party services or software, such as maps, online videos or social networking features. Many of these services may set cookies on your device.

You may specify in your browser settings what kind of cookies your device should get and store. Our system will send cookies upon visiting the websites, unless you have disabled this option in your browser settings. However, certain special features of the Project and/or Services may not be available to you, if you do not accept our cookies policy.
